seven reflections on the seven days of creation

refresh your spirit

Women in Focus has prepared a special weekend offering women like you an opportunity to refresh your spirit in the setting of the beautiful Rocky mountains in Canmore, Alberta. The weekend is designed around seven reflections on the creative nature of our God as revealed in the first chapter of Genesis. You will have an opportunity to engage in Scripture in times of personal reflection, group interaction, walks in creation and creative activities.

You will be staying at the Chateau Canmore, included in your registration fee.

refresh your passion

Ministry and mission is exciting as we serve our God with joy, but it can also be draining. This weekend will offer you an opportunity to engage with others in similar ministries to share ideas and resources. We will endeavor to reignite our creative energies through artistic expression (no matter your abilities!) and free ourselves from fears and inhibitions.

This is the perfect weekend to spend with a friend and refresh a relationship with time away from life's commitments.

It is also a time to renew acquaintances from across our denomination.
